

YURY BONDARENKO

MD, MPH
Associate Director

Yury Bondarenko lives with health ministries all his medical career from 2001 – after finishing his medical school. He is a medical doctor, specializing in psychiatry, addictions and psychotherapy. He served as director of health ministries department in Russia for over 10 years and another 12 years as the leader of Angelia Adventist Medical Center in Ukraine. He also received Master's degree from Loma Linda University School of Public Health.

Lord is using him as caring doctor, popular speaker, author of books, seminars, podcasts and mental health advocate.

Dr Yury's field of interest is concentrated on various important areas: Comprehensive approach to health; Family psychotherapy; Children and adolescent mental health protection; Addictions prevention and comprehensive addiction treatment; Impact of spiritual wellbeing on mental health; Mental health protection of war impacted communities.

Dr Yury together with his wife and two daughters are in love with hugs), puzzles collection, adventures, singing, prayers and ministry.